

Esma Verebov
HANDMADE PORCELAIN

handmade porcelain of imagination

shapes of senses

Since 2018, Esma Dereboy has been using her vast ceramic experience in porcelain tableware products, allowing everyone to tell their unique story in each table. Each piece presented one by one with the “Mix and Match” approach make a difference with the integrity it creates when combined.

The handmade products are produced by limoges porcelain which are elaborately made with care and dedication in her own workshop in Istanbul. Every design, which makes prominent its durability and timeless designs, has been awarded many product design awards with its selected colours and simple appearance.

While constantly developing our product range, we welcome on creating design solutions to our customers special needs and request for special projects.
